

Updated:

AHLAM AL SHEDOUKHY, M.D., FRCPC

Professor, Pathology

College of Medicine

Alfaisal University

Email: aalshedoukhy@alfaisal.edu

Tel. +966 1 215 7697

Education:

MBBS , 1982-1988, Faculty of Medicine, King Saud University, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

F.R.C.P.C, June 200 , Canadian Certification in Specialty of Anatomical Pathology, Calgary – Canada.

UCSF- USA, April 2005 , Dermatopathology Sub Specialization, University of California, San Francisco, USA.

Working Experience:

September 2011- till present	Assistant professor and Head of Pathology, Pharmacology Department at Alfaisal University, College of Medicine- Riyadh- KSA.
October 2009 – October 2011:	Assistant Professor at Security Forces Hospital. Consultant Pathologist, Dermatopathologist, Riyadh, KSA.
March 2007- September 2009	Consultant Pathologist, Dermatopathologist and Assistant Professor at KFSH&RC.
April 2006- March 2007	Head of Histopathology at AlHabeeb Medical Complex.
February 2006- April 2006	Acting Head of Department of Histopathology at King Fahad Medical City
April 2005- September 2005	Fellowship Training in Dermatopathology, University of California, School of Medicine, San Francisco
July 2004 – April 2005	Locum Appointment / Consultant Pathologist King Faisal Specialist Hospital
May 2003-July 2004	Assistant Professor of Pathology, King Saud University
June 2001 – May 2003	Consultant –Pathologist, King Khalid University Hospital, Riyadh
June 1996-June	Resident in Pathology, University of Calgary, Calgary, Alberta Canada
January 1, 1996- June 1996	Resident in Pathology, University of British Columbia Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

Research:

- Post-mortem histopathological changes in premature neonates with respiratory distress on ventilatory support and having received surfactant compared with similar clinical picture, however without, the use of surfactant (Archival Autopsy material before Availability of Surfactant).
- Review of Kimura's disease and presentation of unique case (presented at the Resident's Research Day, Calgary, Alberta).

- The black Crow Award, in 1998, Calgary, Alberta- Canada, for doing the most number of Autopsy cases,

Publications:

- “CASE of Urinary Bladder Bortryoid Rhabdomyosarcoma”.
- “Hepatocellular Carcinoma and Gallbladder Adenocarcinoma – Two Primaries with No Significant factors”. Published in the Saudi Journal of Gastroenterology Vol. 9, Nov. 3, 2003.
- Orbital alveolar soft part sarcoma; Histopathologic report of two cases. Published in Saudi Journal of Ophthalmology (2010) 24, 57-61.
- In progress; a case report of Atypical NK T-cell lymphoma, Nasal type, in a young Saudi male, KFSH experience.
- Refinement of PBL evaluation criteria by tutors results in enhanced active engagement of students and objective evaluation process. Nominated for best abstract, at the 10TH APMEC 2012.

ON-GOING RESEARCHES:

- Head and neck Lymphoma, K.AU.H experience
- FNA Finding in a Case of Insular carcinoma of Thyroid
- For publication; “ Modified Team based learning in clinic-pathological sessions as a tool to improve clinical reasoning, team communication and interpersonal skills”
- Molecular aspect on acral melanoma in Saudi population
- Mycosis fungoides and Saudi population

TEACHING EXPERIENCE:

- Instruction of medical students and pathology residents rotating through division of Histopathology.
- Histopathological instruction for internal medicine residents on clinical-pathological conference meetings (inter-hospital).
- Instruction of dental students of forensic pathology.
- Responsible for running a course on cervical Pathology cytology (Pap smear) gynecology residents.
- Organ demonstration on autopsy specimen for 1st year medical students (when in Canada), and organ museum specimen at King Saud Medical School, girls College, Riyadh.
- Dermopath training weekly meeting with in-house and in programme dermatology residents.
- Weekly Clinicopathological correlation (CPC), with Surgery department, Gastroenterology, pediatric tumor board, and lymphoma tumor board.
- Participate in monthly Dermatology Club and Pathology club meeting, in Riyadh.
- Participate and supervise the pathology resident’s weekly case presentation and journal club meetings.
- Participate in monthly Medical Education Club and Pathology club meeting, in Riyadh.
- Instruction of medical students at Alfaisal university , COM .

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP:

- Fellow of Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Canada since 2000.
- United States and Canadian Academy of Pathology since 2004.
- Participating in Interlaboratory Comparison Programs and Performance Improvement Programs, with Collage of American Pathologists.
- Annals of Saudi medicine, reviewer.